YEAR ONE AT CEDARVILLE

We're glad you are here and anticipate great contributions from the class of '88 and from the new members of other classes as well.

This collection of pictures of College Week and new faces in the 'ville has been prepared to help you remember what we trust has been the start of an exciting experience, your time at Cedarville. This year we have included some of your comments and reactions to things that have already taken place. Maybe you will identify with some of the thoughts shared.

It is our prayer and desire that your time and experiences here will be used of God to make you better prepared for His service. Each new day and each new contact provides opportunities to grow and stretch out. Many things will change during your time here.

We trust that the friends and the experiences from the 'ville will be cherished and nurtured for the rest of your life.

We will be in touch.

Your Roommate:

She's so quiet, doesn't she know how to talk?

It's nice to know there's somebody shorter than me somewhere.

She only rented two U-hauls?

Boy, does he use that phone. Two hour calls just to someone across campus.

Different. The picture she sent me showed dark hair; when I saw her she had curly blonde!

Praise Time:

It was good! The singing and all was great.
Music all praised God but it was too slow. It seemed like a funeral instead of a praise time.

Housing Registration:

Faith Dorm? But I'm male!
Quick, easy, and painless...similar to suicide by cyanide.
I was nervous and scared. I was lost, so I just kinda followed the crowd.
Do I really want to do this? And share a room with someone else?
Hauling in and unpacking boxes, boxes, trunks, and more boxes. My dorm (Willetts) is great - big rooms!"
Nothing like being assigned to a dorm and room that doesn't exist.

I.D. Pictures:

Aaaagggghhh!!
I have to keep this all four years?
Embarrassing – my Mom wanted to stand in line with me!
Hey wait! I didn't smile!
Getting the picture taken wasn't so bad, but seeing how it came out was bad!
Dreadful, but I sure have straight, white teeth.
Would you smile after a three day trip?

Class Registration:

It really pays to be pre-registered!
I waited three hours and still didn't get what I wanted!
I forgot what? To get my classes on the computer, but you said only if we had changes!
It went OK, but by the time I got up here most of the classes were closed. But I still got the classes I wanted.
Just as I go to the stupid door for the computers, this man walks by and says, "English Grammer and Syntax is now closed." UGH!

All the Meetings:

Are you sure you can't squeeze one more person in this row?

Went to them wondering why I had to go, left glad that I had gone.

I'm sorry - I didn't know that this meeting was for seniors.

I've never sat so long or been to church so many times in my life.

Saying Goodbye:

Dad...I'm not too old to hug you goodbye.
Sniff, sniff (ya hoo, they're gone).
Don't leave me here!
Who said "goodbye?" My parents have been praying for this for years.
Tearful, hard, it makes one grow up a lot.
Best part of going away to college - getting away from my brother!

Bible Conference With Pastor Jeremiah:

Excellent!! He really knew what kinds of things we needed and motivated us to start the college experience right.
Help! I'm a lost rib.
Great way to start the year.
A real challenge, encouragement.
It was a time of real challenge and self-examination.

Saturday Night Barbeque/Program:

This was great. It was the first time I met any of the other freshmen in my dorm hall.
Yummy!! My favorite dinner, great job, cooks!
You find out who are going to be your true friends – the ones who tell you you have sauce on your face!
It was neat but no one acted normal. They all ate that good food with silverware!
Battle of the bees!
I wonder if people around here eat chicken with their fingers?
Tasty – it was my first taste of Cedarville food – I was impressed.
With no forks it was sticky.

First Call Home:

Hi, Mom! Um, can you send some money?
They called me!
It was great just to know that home was only a phone call away!
I called the first night telling myself that I wasn't homesick but my Mom missed me!
Hi, Mom! Everything is fine...Yes, I miss you,,Oh, by the way, I forgot my raincoat and umbrella – I really need it here.
I'm sorry, the number you have dialed has been disconnected!?
Tearful – everyone cried. My dog misses me!

Paying Your Bill:

I've just started and I'm in debt already.
Easy come – easy go!
The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away!
After the immediate shock, I panicked. The total looked more like the national debt than a college bill, so like a good politician I deferred.
I've never spent so much money at one time in all my life!
Praise the Lord. Mom's already paid it!
I plead the Fifth!
I could of had a Mercedes!
GASP! I owe how much?!

My First Impressions of Cedarville

Saying hello, meeting new faces
Traveling to many new places.
Red tape and hassles, endless lines
Reading and studying, stretching your mind.
Walking to class (or on the run)
Yet still having lots of fun.
Listening to lectures, sleeping through much
A gentle smile, a comforting touch.
Stopping for lunch to grab a bite
It's windy again – hair such a sight!
A letter in the mailbox – what do you know!
The wind chill factor seems twenty below.
Umbrellas, mud puddles, raincoats and more
Buying edibles at C'ville's grocery store.
Studying hours of biology with no comprehension
Test days are coming – Oh what tension!
Playing games, meeting new friends
Building a love to never end
I've been here two weeks – four years to go
Four years to study, love, and grow.
These are my first impressions of Cedarville
Hoping I'll build more memories still.
